

The background of the image is a grid of glass panels, likely from a window or a modern building facade. Each panel reflects a different view of trees, creating a complex, layered visual effect. The colors are warm, with a strong red and orange tint. Overlaid on this grid is the text "FROM PORTUGAL" in a large, white, serif font. The word "FROM" is on the top line, and "PORTUGAL" is on the bottom line, both centered horizontally.

It started in 2010 in an abandoned room of the old Império Wool Factory - the Thread Room - in the Portuguese village of Manteigas. Our objective was to work with the most traditional fabric of the local wool industry - burel, with a strong drive to keep alive and also reinvent the value of the region's natural resources, combining the art and know-how of the village weavers with modern design, creating original works with a contemporary trait, that invade homes, offices, hotels, companies, in the shape of carpets, pillows, bed spreads, benches, wall coverings, backpacks, bags...

GATSBY

OCTO

The Gatsby collection was born from the desire to pay tribute to the glamour of the 20s. Unhappy with boundless materialism and with the lack of moral that has been dogged by a kind of decadence, each item of this collection is the reflection of its main characters: Nick, Jay and Daisy. The golden decade, the decade of glamour, the era of jazz, translated into a collection in which luxury, power and seduction rule. The detailed reliefs represent the aesthetics of art deco. The bold shapes tear away the moral limits of ceramics, launching it to its highest expression!

OCTO The Octo lamps create a homely atmosphere by communicating through their light, in which beauty is conveyed by gazing into its light beams. The contemporary design of these lamps gives off an indirect light field that forms patterns around it. This collection of lamps is surprisingly well suited to large and small spaces due to their lightness!

Laboratório d'Estórias[®]

The art of telling stories in the shape of objects

Born in 2013, Laboratório d'Estórias is an experimental design space that seeks to recover ancestral techniques of manufacture and reinterpret icons of Portuguese popular culture. In Laboratório d'Estórias, ceramics, illustration and writing come together to create unique and contemporary pieces, fruit of a networking that brings together various knowledges and generations.

In each one of our pieces there are parts of history to be discovered and a new story to tell, which begins to be unveiled in the packaging. Buying a piece of Laboratório d'Estórias is, therefore, much more than buying a piece of decoration. Is to buy a story in the shape of an object. A piece that, for all that it represents, becomes an artifact of desire.

M E D I T E R R A N E U M

The MÈZË products are shaped from traditional materials such as stone, wood, ceramics, glass, metal, natural fibers or cork resulting in contemporary objects, made by the hands of experienced and conscientious designers. They respect these materials and create functional pieces for our everyday life or for special occasions.

The various types of MÈZË pans and pots produced in enameled cast iron, an ancient technique that provides for the best food, allow for different types of cooking. In complement to these products there are also basic accessories for the kitchen, like food storage containers, cups, boards, Mediterranean-inspired textiles and other specific accessories typical of this region, known around the world for its good organic and natural food.

Moon River is a peaceful walk along a river bank on a late summer afternoon having the moon as companion.

It's the time to take a deep breath, scent the fresh air embracing the aroma of Nature and get lost wondering at the water flow reflecting a butterfly's flight and the dance of the leaves.

Within a mix of fresh and soft colors, the transparency of cottons, the lightness of printed silks, the organic texture of hand woven silks, elegant and flowing silhouettes reveal unexpected details in comfortable and versatile styled pieces patterning this magical scenario.
